

Fit for Ageing

Applying design to the production of age-friendly places

One day workshop

This event brings together a range of professionals (built-environment, planning, design, health, community development, housing, and commissioning) to explore how creative design-led thinking can be applied to age-friendly places - with the aim of developing new visions for our towns and cities and joining up diverse resources at time of shrinking budgets.

Research presentations

Keynote speakers

Jeremy Porteus
Director, Housing LIN

Prof Sarah Wigglesworth
DWELL Project, University of Sheffield

with presentation of findings and an exhibition of co-design work from the DWELL research project.

Venue & programme

Millennium Gallery

Arundel Gate, Sheffield S1 2PP
(5 mins from Sheffield Station)

10.00 Coffee + registration
10.30 Welcome + introduction
10.45 Keynote + discussion
12.00 Research presentations
13.00 Lunch
14.00 Workshop sessions
16.00 Plenary discussion
16.30 Event closes

Workshop & dissemination event, Thursday 6th Oct 2016